"Our Future, Our Vote" campaign targets New Yorkers ages 17-40 from marginalized communities in NYC. The campaign mission is to amplify civic knowledge, engagement, and political empowerment.

More than a campaign, this movement is designed to inspire & build a generation of informed & civically active New Yorkers. Since there is no single path to freedom, we must use every tool at our disposal to achieve greater freedom for our communities.

Why This Matters

The decisions made by elected officials today will shape the future for generations. By fostering civic education and grassroots organizing, we empower youth leaders to build a just and equitable world with the political strength to create lasting change.

Our Future Our Vote Campaign Goals

1. Increase civic knowledge and participation in NYC's African-descendant communities, the disenfranchised with a special focus on youth.
2. Establish infrastructure for sustained political empowerment within these communities.
3. Mobilize people power through civic engagement and grassroots organizing.

A Call to Civic Action

There is no single path to freedom. To achieve self-determined liberation for all people across the Diaspora, we must use every tool at our disposal. Join us in this fight for justice and lasting change!
